

Nursing 484: Nursing Immersion: Professional Practice/Praxis
Clinical Performance Evaluation Tool

Student: Eric Johnson

Semester/Year: Summer 2021

Faculty: Alex Tecson

Site: Sunrise

Student must obtain a Satisfactory “S” grade in all competencies in clinical, including virtual and simulation experiences, at the Final Evaluation to pass the course.

Course Outcomes and Competencies
Focusing on wellness, health promotion, illness and disease management across the lifespan in a variety of settings while recognizing the diverse uniqueness of individuals, and providing coordinated care to promote optimal health in individuals, families, communities, and/or populations, by the end of Nursing 452, students should be able to:
	Midterm			Final
	S	NI/ NO	U	S	U
CO#1: Develop authentic, culturally sensitive caring relationships to nurture individuals and families residing in the community.
Demonstrate authentic caring relationships with patients and families of diverse backgrounds and cultures to facilitate healing, using best practice guidelines in the Medical Surgical Unit settings.				X
Integrate compassionate, patient-centered, evidence-based care for patients/families/populations in the community setting that respects patient and family preferences.				X
Demonstrate tolerance for ambiguity and unpredictability and its effect on patient care in a variety in Medical Surgical Unit settings.				X
Assist with basic needs as sacred acts while sustaining human dignity.				X
Provide support, empowerment, and hope when caring for diverse patients in a variety of community healthcare systems.				X
Create a healing environment to patients and family.				X
Modify Care Plan reflective of authentic caring care that will enhance healing process.				X
Demonstrate ways to create a culturally safe caring environment.				X
CO#2: Apply scientific problem-solving methods and multiple ways of knowing in making caring-based nursing decisions that promote wellness and healing in individuals, families, and populations within the Medical Surgical Unit Settings.
Apply principles of evidence-based practice that contribute to safe and high-quality patient outcomes to guide health teaching, health counseling, and follow-up throughout the lifespan within the healthcare microsystem in the Medical Surgical Unit Settings.				X

Course Outcomes and Competencies
Solve problems related to patient care using critical thinking and clinical reasoning.				X
Establish plan to resolve conflicts associate to authentic patient care.				X
Apply skills of inquiry and analysis when addressing care of patients/families/populations in the Medical Surgical Unit settings.				X
Incorporate nurse-sensitive indicators that affect the nurse's work on the adult medical-surgical units				X
CO#3: Implement quality improvement strategies within a variety of healthcare systems.
Determine possible obstacles that hinders quality authentic care				X
Collaborate with the healthcare partners about Quality Improvement Project.				X
Initiate Quality Improvement Project to help augment the healing environment in the Medical Surgical Unit.				X
Present the Quality Improvement Project.				X
CO#4: Establish effective communication and collaborative relationships with community members and an interprofessional team to promote optimal health in individuals, families, and populations within the Medical Surgical Unit Settings.
Identify ways nurses can implement patient safety within the context of the interprofessional team.				X
Utilize collaboration and therapeutic communication techniques with health care partners in the Medical Surgical Unit settings.				X
Implement authentic care plan in collaboration with health care partners in Medical Surgical Unit settings.				X
Engage in appropriate communication techniques when interacting with members of the healthcare team, including the patient and the patient's support network on the Medical Surgical Unit settings.				X
Illustrate specific instances of inter and interprofessional communication and collaboration contribute to safe, evidence-based, patient authentic centered care.				X
Apply the principles of an authentic caring relationship to improve relationships with the patient and families.				X
Maintain open therapeutic communication at all times among health care members based on BSN Handbook.
CO#5: Utilize information management systems and patient care technology when promoting health and coordinating care in the Medical Surgical Unit settings.
Apply knowledge acquired in the clinical environment to effectively use information management systems appropriate for clinical sites.				X
Identify patient outcomes, including interpretation of assessment data and appropriate follow-up, to evaluate the effectiveness of psychobiological interventions for patients and families in the Medical Surgical Unit settings.				X
Use information and communication technologies in providing quality authentic care to patients.				X

Course Outcomes and Competencies
Recognize the role of information technology in improving patient care outcomes and creating a safe care environment in the Medical Surgical Unit settings.				X
Manage bedside technologies in providing authentic caring healing environment.				X
CO#6: Engage in leadership management of care activities to improve direct and indirect patient care within a variety of healthcare systems.
Develop a personal plan for transitioning into a professional role.				X
Collaborate with the health care unit regarding Quality Improvement project to improve healing environment.				X
Delegate appropriate role to the designated team members in doing bedside care and Quality Improvement Project.				X
Revise the personalize care plan based on collected evaluation data.				X
Establish plan for conflict resolution.				X
Adhere to the BSN Student Handbook about Professionalism.				X
CO#7 Integrate professional, legal, and ethical guidelines while providing altruistic care and practice kindness towards self and others.
Demonstrate professional, ethical, and legal accountability in the provision of human care nursing in the community.				X
Comply with the Code of Ethics, Standards of Practice, and BSN Handbook policies and procedures of Nevada State College, School of Nursing, and clinical agencies.				X
Maintain professional behavior and appearance.				X
Assume responsibility for learning by accepting constructive criticism and developing plan of action for improvement.				X
Arrive to the designated clinical experiences on time.				X
Submit and revise clinical paperwork on time.				X
Engage in self-evaluation.				X
Demonstrate humanistic-altruistic values by the practice of loving-kindness and equanimity				X
Implement accurate documentation process about authentic patient-centered care.				X
Implement holistic, patient-centered care that reflects an understanding of collecting assessment data, pathophysiology, pharmacology, medical management, and nursing management for adults requiring medical-surgical management.				X

Midterm Comments: Address strengths and weaknesses

Faculty:

Student:

Student Signature _____ Date _____

Faculty Signature _____ Date _____

Mid-clinical Evaluation: Faculty and student must complete documentation for remediation of unsatisfactory areas.

Remediation strategy table

Needs Improvement Area	Remediation Strategy

Final Comments: Address strengths and weaknesses

Faculty:

Eric has successfully met the clinical requirements for the final course of nursing school. Eric has all the tools needed to succeed in a Star RN program. His competence in meditech and HCA system makes him a perfect candidate for HCA's new nurse program. Good luck with your chosen career.

NEVADA STATE COLLEGE

Student:

Student Signature: Eric Johnson (E-SIGN) Date: 8/1/2021

Faculty Signature

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be 'Eric Johnson', written over a horizontal line.

Date 8/10/21